Join us as gather as one to witness for all those who are not represented by the Group of 20 leaders yet whose lives and livelihoods are affected by choices not of their making. We we will welcome a diverse group of speakers with song and prayer. Our guests speakers will reflect experiences and world views:

- Chris Hedges, Pulitzer Prize-winning American journalist, author and veteran war correspondent
- James Quilligan, international economic consultant and American coordinator for the Convention on the Global Commons
- Privalage "Priva" Haangandu, Debt Programme Officer, Jesuit Center for Theological Reflection
- Benedicto Martinez, leader in the Authentic Labor Front and President of the National Union of Workers, Mexico's independent labor federation

Led by our guests, we will begin our journey at approximately 3 pm carrying flags of the 192 sovereign countries representative of the body of our United Nations. Our service will continue as faithful pray together as one for love, compassion, the common good, respect for God's creation, human dignity, truth-telling, fairness and equality, peace, freedom and human security.

We will need flag carriers and are also encouraging people to bring church banners. The Sanctuary of the Church is handicap accessible from street level, however there are no handicap accessible restrooms. The journev will be short and on civt sidewalks. A shuttle
